

PENANCE.

A Drunken old Scot by the rigorous sentence

Of the kirk was condemn'd to the stool of repentance.

Mess John to his conscience his vices put home,

And his danger in this, and the world that's to come.

Thou reprobate mortal; why, dost not thou know

Whither, after your death, all you drunkards must go?

Must go when we're dead? why Sir, you may swear,

We shall go, one and all, where we find the best beer.

The MISTAKE.

By the Same.

A Took a poor failor's leg away;

And, as on 'his comrade's back he made off,

A fecond fairly took his head off.

The fellow, on this odd emergence,

Carries him pick-back to the furgeons.

Z—ds! cries the Doctor, are you drunk,

To bring me here an headlefs trunk?

A lying dog! cries Jack,—he faid

His leg was off, and not his head.
